

Construction Industry Induction

(WHITE CARD)

AIM OF THE COURSE

From the end of August 2009 in WA, the construction industry induction is based on a unit of competence (CPCCOHS1001A Work safely in the construction industry) that is nationally accredited will be recognised under amended regulations. Across all States and Territories, including here in WA, both types of WA cards issued through training providers are accepted by the regulatory authority as evidence that induction training has been completed. Those people who have completed the previous 'bluecard' Course in Safety Awareness Training will not have to repeat the training.

Recognition of Interstate cards issued prior to August 2009

- Queensland 'blue' and 'white cards' are recognised in WA.
- NSW 'green cards' are no longer valid in NSW and are not recognised in WA.
- Victorian 'red cards' are not recognised in WA.

COURSE CONTENT

As a result of attending this program participants will have knowledge of:

- Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Law in Australia & Western Australia
